Protection with TravelAssist

Travelling offers many rewards and challenges. One challenge you don't need is an emergency medical situation.

TravelAssist provides support worldwide to travellers in emergency medical situations and obtains Great-West's approval for covered medical expenses.

Imagine yourself away from home, faced with unexpected expenses and potential language barriers at a time when you need immediate, professional medical attention.

Through your Great-West group benefits plan, you have enhanced protection against a medical emergency anywhere in the world.

What TravelAssist provides

TravelAssist complements coverages provided through your provincial and Great-West group benefit plans by co-ordinating and managing medical emergencies.

Through TravelAssist, you have access to a range of services. Multilingual assistance co-ordinators can direct you to the nearest, most appropriate physicians and healthcare facilities and provide assistance with travel arrangements.

TravelAssist services

Worldwide assistance – TravelAssist coverage is provided anywhere in the world, including Canada if you travel to another province.

Assistance Centre communications network – You have access to a direct line 24 hours a day, every day. The Assistance Centre can help you locate hospitals, clinics and physicians and arrange medical evacuation if necessary.

Medical advisors – Qualified licensed physicians, under agreement with the assistance company, provide consultative and advisory services as well as second opinions.

Courtesy assistance – The Assistance Centre can help you locate qualified legal advice, local interpreters and appropriate services for replacing lost passports.

Admission advance assistance – The Assistance Centre may make advance payment to the hospital when required for admission.

Assisting unattended children – If your illness, injury or death leaves your children unattended, the Assistance Centre will help organize travel arrangements for them. Transportation expenses of one-way regular economy airfare per child will be covered.

Return of vehicle – If sickness, injury or death prevents you from driving, TravelAssist will pay up to $1,000 toward the cost of your vehicle's return home or to the nearest rental agency.

Return home – If you are delayed and unable to use your original return travel ticket due to an accident or illness, you will be provided with an economy fare ticket when you are able to travel.

Emergency transportation – If appropriate treatment for your condition is not available, the Assistance Centre will arrange for your emergency transportation to a facility that is equipped to treat you. The decision to transfer you will be made by the attending physician, and the assistance company in consultation with Great-West. If the attending physician indicates that you can return to Canada for medical treatment and you choose not to, your coverage for travel assistance and the related healthcare claim will terminate.

Family member travel assistance – If you are hospitalized for more than ten consecutive days and have been travelling alone, TravelAssist covers the expense of one round-trip economy airfare for one member of your immediate family to visit you.

Additional accommodation expenses – If your travelling companion stays with you beyond the original return date, his or her expenses will be covered up to $150 per day with an overall maximum of $1,500. This coverage offsets the cost of accommodation, meals, telephone, taxis or a rental car.

Travelling companion expenses – If your travelling companion is unable to use his or her original return travel ticket because of a delay caused by your illness, injury or death, he or she will be provided with an economy fare return ticket.

Transportation of remains – In the event of death, TravelAssist will pay expenses legally required for preparing and transporting a traveller's remains home. The maximum payable is $3,500. The Assistance Centre can help make the arrangements.

Note: All benefits are paid in Canadian funds.

Commonly asked questions

What is considered a medical emergency?

Your Great-West group plan covers the costs of the assistance described in this brochure, when the costs are incurred because of a medical emergency. A medical emergency is any sudden, critical, and unexpected illness or injury which requires immediate medical treatment.

Elective services are not covered. Nor are expenses associated with a condition which requires ongoing medical attention. Once the emergency treatment for a condition has been completed, any ongoing medical treatment related to that condition is not covered.

How do I arrange for assistance?

In the event of a medical emergency, call the Assistance Centre immediately, prior to seeking medical treatment. Use the toll-free number on your TravelAssist wallet card or at the back of this brochure. If it is not possible to contact the Assistance Centre before seeking medical treatment, please contact them as soon as is possible.

Failure to contact the Assistance Centre may result in reduced benefit payment. Reimbursement for eligible hospital costs will be reduced by 40 per cent. All other eligible expenses for the same emergency will be limited to the lesser of your out-of-country plan maximum or $25,000.

The Assistance Centre will help you arrange for appropriate medical care, verify your insurance coverage, and provide necessary travel assistance, such as flight, hotel accommodation and vehicle return. If required, the Assistance Centre can also provide advance payments, subject to Great-West's approval.

If I'm admitted to a hospital, does my TravelAssist card confirm that I am covered?

Hospitals will not accept your TravelAssist card as proof of medical coverage. They will use it to call the Assistance Centre, which then verifies coverage.

What if the hospital refuses to recognize my card or call the Assistance Centre?

This is very unlikely, however, if it happens, you or your family member should call the Assistance Centre. The Assistance Centre will call the hospital directly and take whatever measures are appropriate.

Am I required to pay hospital and doctor bills, or will the Assistance Centre automatically pay these bills when I'm discharged?

You are responsible for arranging payment for all hospital and doctor bills when you are discharged. In some cases, hospitals may allow you to assign your insurance benefits in place of full payment. Your TravelAssist card is not a credit card. It does not provide payment.

How do I submit a claim?

Contact the Assistance Centre Claims Department for the necessary claim forms when you return home. Submit your out-of-country medical emergency claims directly to the Assistance Centre and include your original receipts.

In most cases, the Assistance Centre will pay your provincial health plan's share of these claims on the province's behalf. The Assistance Centre will also reimburse you for the balance of your out-of-country medical emergency expenses covered by your group healthcare plan.

We suggest you contact your provincial health plan prior to leaving the country to determine the extent of its coverage. Many provincial health plans have time limitations on the submission of claims. These time limits apply to your group healthcare plan claim as well. If your provincial health plan refuses payment, you may be asked to reimburse Great-West for any amount already paid on its behalf.

Send claims directly to:

Assistance Centre Claims Department
P.O. Box 97, Station A
Mississauga, ON L5A 2Y9

If you have any questions about your claim or coverage, call the Assistance Centre Claims Department toll-free at 1-866-530-6025 or collect at 905-816-1990.

Do I need to purchase additional healthcare coverage when I travel?

Your Great-West group healthcare plan provides comprehensive out-of-country and TravelAssist coverage for emergency medical treatment that may be required when you're travelling temporarily outside of Canada. However, it is impossible to foresee all the costs you may incur.

To help you plan, consider the maximums and reimbursement levels applicable under your group healthcare plan. These are included in your benefits booklet.

For example, if your plan reimburses 80 per cent of the balance after your provincial plan benefits have been paid, you may wish to purchase additional coverage for the remainder.

If you do purchase additional insurance, the Assistance Centre will co-ordinate the payment of your claim with your other carrier.

Does my TravelAssist plan include trip cancellation insurance?

Your plan does not cover transportation costs if you're unable to start your trip due to the illness or death of a family member. This type of coverage is provided by flight cancellation insurance.

If you miss prearranged and prepaid return transportation to Canada because you are in a hospital, the Assistance Centre will arrange and pay the cost of economy return transportation for you.
